To

K. R. Srinivasiengar, Esq.,M.A.,
Muzrai Commissioner in Mysore, Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honor to submit herewith for perusal, the entire correspondence received from the Sub Division Officer, Malur Division with his No:H.C.1726/18-19 dated 12-5-1922 relating to the resumption of a Devadaya Inam land in Karadabande hosahalli village Malur Taluk, and to state as follows:- There is a Devadaya Inam land (S.No:143) to have been endowed to Tirumaladevaru Temple in Karadabandehosahalli. According to the old register of Minor Inam, the extent of the land was 0-3 -- kolagas and 4-5-6. On resurvey the inam is confirmed for puja as measuring 1 acre and assessed at 1-8-0.

The records show that there is no temple in existence in respect of whose worship this inam was granted and the people of the village have no desire for renovating the institution. The temple is stated to be in ruins and no trace of it to be found.

The land endowed to the temple is reported to be lying waste for nearly 10 years, the whereabouts of the archak not being known.

The Sub Division Officer Mr. Krishnasastri in March 1914 inspected the place and recommended the resumption of the Inam. The question was under correspondence and the present Sub Division Officer Malur, Mr. Navaneetham has after full investigation recorded on 12-5-1922, the same opinion, which has been held by the Amildars who have dealt with the case.

In these circumstances I request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the resumption of the land in question, the Inam tenure being cancelled and the land being treated as Government unoccupied assessed waste.

I have the honor to be,
S i r,
Your most obedient servant,
Senior Assistant Commissioner in charge.
Kolar District.
